WELCOME

The local organising committee of the UroGynaecological Society of Australasia is thrilled to invite you to the beautiful Gold Coast for its 2019 Annual Scientific Meeting. Come and join us in the luxurious surroundings of the Sheraton Grand Mirage, the only absolute beachfront resort on the Gold Coast, surrounded by lush gardens and sparkling lagoons, with average daytime temperatures in March of 28C. All this and just minutes away from Sea World!

A whole decade has passed since UGSA was founded and held its successful inaugural meeting in Adelaide. These first ten years have been very successful for the organisation, which is now regarded as a pre-eminent source of scientific opinion on matters urogynaecological in Australia and New Zealand, called upon by governments and media outlets for unbiased and accurate information. Of course, the first decade has also seen some major challenges, perhaps most obviously in regard to the use of polypropylene mesh for prolapse and incontinence.

"Quo Vadis?", the tagline of our meeting, is a Latin phrase meaning "Where are you going?" In the modern era the phrase has had a varied and eclectic use. It has appeared as the name of a novel by a Nobel laureate, a movie adaptation, a Canadian death metal band, a video game, a private restaurant in London and even a song by the Australian band the Hoodoo Gurus! It has also been the title of episodes of both M.A.S.H. and E.R. We are using it as a general enquiry as to what the future might hold for us.

We are absolutely delighted to have a range of highly regarded overseas speakers, as well as ones closer to home, all of whom are leaders in their fields, to cover a large range of important and thought-provoking topics.

Two days of workshops prior to the commencement of the ASM will cover an array of important skill-based instruction topics, including the use of support pessaries, native tissue surgery for prolapse and incontinence, as well as sacrocolpopexy. The popular specialist training day is essential for those wishing to better understand the principles of pelvic floor dysfunction.

We hope that there will be something to interest everyone within the program and you will leave stimulated, informed, and, of course, relaxed!

KEY NOTE SPEAKERS

LINDA CARDOZO OBE (UK)

Linda Cardozo is Professor of Urogynaecology and Consultant Gynaecologist at King's College Hospital, London. She trained at Liverpool University Medical School and qualified MBChB in 1974. Following her appointment as a Consultant Obstetrician and Gynaecologist at King's College Hospital in 1985 she continued to develop her interest in all aspects of urogynaecology including the influence of hormones on the lower urinary tract, conservative and surgical treatment of stress incontinence, the pathophysiology and pharmacological treatment of detrusor overactivity and recurrent urinary tract infections as well as the management of urogenital prolapse. Professor Cardozo now heads a busy and productive multi-disciplinary tertiary referral urogynaecology department at King's College Hospitament.

MARK SLACK (UK)

Mark Slack qualified in Medicine in South Africa (University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg) and completed his postgraduate training in Obstetrics & Gynaecology at the University of Cape Town. He has been a Consultant in the UK since 1994 and in 2002 was appointed to Addenbrooke's Hospital, University of Cambridge Teaching Hospitals Trust, where he is currently the Lead Clinician of the Department of Urogynaecology and Reconstructive surgery. He is Clinical Lead for the Department of Gynaecology. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists. He has been awarded a National Bronze Merit Award for his services to the NHS.

MATHEW BARBER (USA)

Dr. Barber joined Duke from the Cleveland Clinic Lerner College of Medicine at Case Western Reserve University where he was professor of Surgery and vice chair for Research in the Obstetrics, Gynecology and Women's Health Institute (WHI) at the Cleveland Clinic. He was also the fellowship program director for Female Pelvic Medicine and Reconstructive Surgery at the Cleveland Clinic.

His clinical practice focuses on the full spectrum of diagnosis, prevention and medical, behavioral, and surgical treatments for women with pelvic floor disorders (PFDs) including urinary incontinence, fecal incontinence, pelvic organ prolapse and emptying disorders of the bowel and bladder. He has been listed on the Best Doctors database continually from 2009 through 2017.

ROGER GOLDBERG (USA)

Dr. Roger Goldberg is Director of the Division of Urogynecology at Northshore University Healthsystem, and Clinical Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine. He is widely published in the field of urogynecology, publishing over 60 peer-review scientific articles, numerous book chapters, and has authored two books including a textbook of urogynecology written for the Primary Care Provider (Springer, 2006), and also "Ever Since I Had My Baby" (Random House, 2003), the first book on post-childbirth pelvic floor disorders written for the layperson. His leadership positions in Urogynecology include a recent 3-year term on the Board of Directors for the American Urogynecology Society (AUGS)

WORKSHOPS

Pelvic Floor Ultrasound – The Window To Functional Anatomy

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Prof Peter Dietz, A/Prof Clara Shek, Dr Vivien Wong DATE & TIME: Wednesday 20th March 8.30am – 12.30pm

VENUE: Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast

MAX NO: 50 delegates COST: $150 AUD

An insightful use of pelvic floor ultrasound in evaluating patients with pelvic floor dysfunction. This course will provide an overview of pelvic floor ultrasound in evaluating patients with pelvic organ prolapse, urinary and faecal incontinence, including the evaluation of synthetic implants and maternal birth trauma. Participants will leave the workshop with an appreciation for comprehensive pelvic floor assessment.

Vaginal Pessary Workshop

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Dr Kurinji Kannan, Dr Patricia Neumann, Ms Christine Murray, Dr Lucy Bates,

Ms Melissa Smith, Ms Jen Rayner

DATE & TIME: Wednesday 20th March, 8.30am - 12.30pm

VENUE:

MAX NO: 40 delegates COST: $80 AUD

The workshop will provide information on vaginal pessary fitting and their management as well research backgrounds, the current guidelines and protocols for their use. With case studies and contemporary surgical updates this course will provide the grounding required to understand their appropriate use in current day female prolapse.

WORKSHOPS

Hands On Clay Pelvis Workshop

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Dr Oliver Daly, Prof Malcolm Frazer, Dr Bernadette Brown, Dr Yu Hwee Tan

DATE & TIME: Wednesday 20th March, 2.00pm – 5.30pm VENUE: Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast

MAX NO: 20 delegates COST: $120 AUD

Would you like to gain a better understanding of pelvic anatomy by building your own pelvis? This practical workshop will provide a theoretical and practical approach to learning pelvic anatomy.

The workshop will comprise an afternoon session commencing with an overview of pelvic structures and supports. Pairs of participants will then work together to build a pelvis using clay and other materials starting with the bony pelvis. Participants will identify bony landmarks of the pelvis and upper femur, the obstetric dimensions and clinical correlates. They will identify the attachments and build the ligamentous structures, muscle groups, pelvic organs, ureters and nerves that comprise the pelvis resulting in a complete pelvis enabling visualisation from an abdominal and perineal perspective.

Sacroneuromodulation Workshop

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Dr lan Tucker

DATE & TIME: Wednesday 20th March, 2.00pm – 5.30pm VENUE: Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast

MAX NO: 40 delegates COST: $120 AUD

The Urogynae Trainee Day

FACULTY: Dr Yu Hwee Tan (Convener); Prof Judith Goh, Dr Vivien Wong, Dr Lucy Bates,

Dr Natharnia Young, Dr Todd Ladanchuk, Dr Bernadette Brown

DATE & TIME: Thursday 21st March, 8.30am – 3.30pm VENUE: Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast

MAX NO: 40

COST: $120 AUD (Trainees & Diplomats) & $250 AUD (Consultants)

An interactive masterclass covering all things pelvic floor – this whole day workshop will include presentations of a wide range of pelvic floor topics as well as case presentations and small group discussions led by the speakers.

Target audience: registrars years 1-6, recently completed FRANZCOG and Urology registrars (but all comers welcome)

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Dr Roger Goldberg and panel

DATE & TIME: Thursday 21st March, 8.30pm – 12.30pm VENUE: Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast

MAX NO: 40 delegates
COST: $80 AUD

Join Roger Goldberg and panel for a lively 2-part workshop debating the best approaches to both prolapse and SUI surgery. Which approaches are best and what role do they play in your practice for 2019 and beyond? Includes surgical videos and dry lab models.

WORKSHOPS

Sacral Colpopexy Simulation Workshop

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Dr Alexander Mowat, Dr Christopher Maher DATE & TIME: Thursday 21st March, 2.00pm - 5.30pm VENUE: Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast

MAX NO: 20 delegates $450 AUD COST:

This is a practical hands-on workshop that aims to improve participants understanding of and the skills that are required to perform the laparoscopic sacral colpopexy. Five stations that focus on basic suturing skills, crafting of the mesh, dissection of the bladder and rectum, suturing the mesh, and securing the mesh to the sacrum will mimic the basic steps of the surgery. The small group will allow delegates ample opportunity to freely interact and learn from experienced preceptors. A simulator will also allow delegates an opportunity to practice newly learnt skills.

Laparoscopic and Robotic Pelvic Floor Surgery

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Dr Marcus Carey, Dr Mark Slack, Dr Felicity Gould, Dr Chin Yong

DATE & TIME: Thursday 21st March, 8.30am - 12.30pm VENUE: Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast

MAX NO: 40 delegates COST: $250 AUD

Live surgery enables contextual understanding for pelvic organ prolapse surgery but limits learning opportunities due to time constraints. Edited high definition video recordings with annotated commentary will permit a broad range of cases to be discussed, risk and anatomical landmarks. From mesh-free laparoscopic Burch and uterine conservation to robotic sacrocolpopexy this session will ideally dovetail to the simulation workshop in the afternoon.

Vaginal Surgery Tricks of the Trade: Optimising outcomes in each compartment - The Boston Brekkie

Scientific

(Limited to UGSA ASM Delegates)

FACULTY: Dr Roger Goldberg

DATE & TIME: Friday 22nd March, 7.00a-7.50a Sheraton Mirage Resort, Gold Coast VENUE:

MAX NO: 60 delegates $20.00 AUD COST:

Join Dr. Goldberg at the Boston Brekkie sharing his 15+ years' experience of minimally invasive sacrospinous ligament/Capio repairs. Discuss the patients, the challenges and the outcomes

SCHOLARSHIP

2019 UGSA-COLOPAST SCIENTIFIC TRAVELLING SCHOLARSHIP.

The Urogynaecological Society of Australasia (UGSA) would like to invite trainees with a special interest in urogynaecology to apply for a travelling scholarship sponsored by Colopast.

The scholarship, up to the value of $5000, provides for registration, travel and accommodation to a major international meeting in 2019.

After the UGSA ASM in 2019, Coloplast will arrange for access to two major Urogyn facilities to allow access to surgical preceptorship and consultation sessions. Coloplast will work with the Society to finalise a programme that delivers suitable content.

THE AWARD INCLUDES:

> Travel, Registration & Accommodation up to a value of $5000

towards an overseas program

> Tour set up in conjunction with Colopast.

APPLICATION CRITERIA FOR BOTH SCHOLARSHIPS:

- To apply, applicants must be a member of UGSA
- Priority will be given to candidates who are presenting at the meeting
- Research remains a focal requirement for this scholarship. Applicants are requested to provide information within their CV on their research projects.

APPLICATION DETAILS:

- List which scholarship you are applying for
- A detailed CV and evidence of satisfaction of the above criteria with appropriate documentation.
- Letters of support from your current and past teaching institutions and supervisors would be valuable.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Applications will be accepted by way of a letter via email to the UGSA Committee c/- of Debra O'Brien dobrien@ranzcog.edu.au

Closing date: Friday 21st December 2018
