

Wednesday 6 December 2017
Start	Duration
8:00 AM	1:00	Registration and arrival tea and coffee
8:55 AM	1:05	Official conference opening, including Welcome to Country Matthew Willis Presentation of the New Zealand Student Award for Best Abstract, Australian Student Award for Best Abstract and the Allan van Zyl Memorial Prize
10:05 AM	1:00	Keynote: Crime trends and economic conditions: Research accomplishments and challenges Richard Rosenfeld, University of Missouri
11:05 AM	0:25	Morning tea Sponsored by Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences
		Cognitive criminology	Policing 1	Indigenous corrections	Corrections 1	Education and training	Rape
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three	Eureka room
	Chair	Stavroola Anderson	Adam Masters	Hilde Tubex	Peter Norden	Antje Deckert	Marilyn McMahon
11:30 AM	0:20	Fetal alcohol spectrum disorder in the Australian youth justice system: Prevalence and implications Hayley Passmore and Bernadette Safe, Telethon Kids Institute	‘I haven’t heard anything’: 2013 Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras redux Justin Ellis, University of Sydney	Spatial distance, socio-economic status and prisoner visitation: Are Australia’s Indigenous people visited less in prison? Nicole Ryan, Griffith Criminology Institute	Can family-prisoner relationships ever improve during incarceration? Daniel McCarthy, University of Surrey	Leading change through language: An examination of how language and communication can contribute to a safe, inclusive and people-centred policing service Leanne Sargent, Victoria Police	‘Rape’s rape, isn’t it?’: Listening to LGBTIQ people’s stories of sexual violence Shaez Mortimer, RMIT University
11:50 AM	0:20	Neurolaw in Australia: The use of neuroscientific evidence in criminal proceedings Armin Alimardani, University of New South Wales	Toward reintegrative policing: Desistance and the problem of law enforcement Mark Halsey and Andrew Goldsmith, Flinders University	The prevalence of prison offending with Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal male prisoner samples in Western Australia Catharine Phillips, Edith Cowan University	Making space for imprisoned fathers: Fatherhood, liminality and post-prison reintegration Diana Johns, The University of Melbourne	Changing the crime conversation Katherine McLachlan, University of South Australia	Narratives of force and resistance in rape trials in Victoria Rachael Burgin, Monash University
12:10 PM	0:20	Depression and anxiety in adolescent and young adult offenders: A longitudinal study from 13-32 years using the Australian Temperament Project Ben Edwards, Australian National University	Policing in a changing Vietnam: An ethnography Melissa Jardine, Centre for Law Enforcement and Public Health	Understanding the experience of prison for First Peoples women: Advantages and disadvantages of interfacing yarning and appreciative inquiry by non-First Peoples researchers Sjharn Leeson, Griffith Criminology Institute	The performance of parole: Transformative justice in practice Anna Eriksson, Monash University and James R Brennan	Using authentic assessment as sites of learning: Enhanced employability and skills building for criminology students James Roffee and Kate Burns, Monash University	Lazarus v R : Communication in New South Wales sexual assault law Gail Mason, University of Sydney
12:30 PM	0:20		From traditional policing to the Mandaña community-oriented policing model: Lessons from Guam on implementing community policing Joseph Cruz, Guam Police Department and Danielle Watson, The University of the South Pacific	Twenty-five years post the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody, and the nation’s shame continues Una Stone, RMIT University	Reintegration outside of the lens of rehabilitation: A community sector analysis of services funded to reduce re-offending Mindy Sotiri, The Community Restorative Centre	Citation analysis of Australian and New Zealand criminology Tara Renae McGee, Griffith University	An analysis of a high-profile rape trial: The case of UK footballer Ched Evans Kathryn Royal, Durham University
12:50 PM	1:00	Lunch
		Drugs and crime	Radicalisation, terror and political violence	Indigenous justice	Crime online	Public spaces	Sex and tech
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three	Eureka room
	Chair	Natalie Gately	John Paget	Nicole Ryan	Alyce McGovern	Duncan Chappell	Lynne Roberts
1:50 PM	0:20	Is wastewater analysis useful for understanding rural drug use? Jeremy Prichard, University of Tasmania	Revealing the hidden pathways to radicalisation using social network analysis David Bright, Flinders University	Building effective throughcare strategies for Indigenous offenders Hilde Tubex, University of Western Australia	The malware architect: A criminological perspective Sarah Morrison, Macquarie University	Policing with drug detection dogs in public settings: Mapping embodied harms Peta Malins, RMIT University	Young adults' perceptions of, and engagement with, online sexually explicit material in Australia and the UK Nadine McKillop, University of the Sunshine Coast

2:10 PM	0:20	Drug users and drug policy: Letting lived experience inform policy James Rowe, RMIT University	Representations of terrorism and Muslim identities within national and local news media Amy Pisani, University of New South Wales	Child sexual abuse among indigenous populations: Distinctions in abuse patterns and institutional response Paul Steele, University of New Mexico	Internet users knowledge and attitudes towards the online viewing of child exploitation material in Australia Charlotte Hunn, University of Tasmania	Reducing vulnerability in public: The effectiveness of a psycho-educational intervention Lucy Maxwell, Swinburne University of Technology	Folksonomies of misogyny: ‘Creepshots’, social tagging and networked misogyny Chrissy Thompson, University of Melbourne
2:30 PM	0:20	Media, policy and the law: The creation of the 'new ice risk' Pota Forrest-Lawrence, Western Sydney University	Sentencing laws in Indonesian terrorism prosecutions Milda Istiqomah, University of New South Wales	Social media, vigilantism and Indigenous people Chris Cunneen and Sophie Russell, University of New South Wales	Using financial intelligence to target online fraud victimisation Cassandra Cross, Queensland University of Technology	A life lived in fear is a life half lived: Balancing community fear with offender hypervigilance Danielle Harris, Griffith University	Responding to image-based sexual assault: Results from a national study Asher Flynn, Monash University
2:50 PM	0:20		Collective victimisation: Analysis of the post-election violence in Kenya, 2007–08 John Ndikaru, the Technical University of Kenya	Imagining the just prison: Results from an exploration of prison quality for First Peoples women in Australia Sjharn Leeson, Griffith University	Re-conceptualising 'place' in cyberspace Tony Krone, University of Canberra
3:10 PM	0:30	Afternoon tea
		Panel	Panel	Panel	Panel	Panel	Panel
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three	Eureka room
3:40 PM	1:00	Out with the old, in with the new? Contemporary scholars review articles from the early days of Australian and New Zealand Journal of Criminology: 50th Anniversary special panel (Part 2)* Russell Smith, Australian Institute of Criminology Antje Deckert, Auckland University of Technology Jonathan Clough and Belinda Lloyd, Monash University Clinton Free, University of New South Wales * Attendees at this panel are asked to pre-read each of the original articles that can be downloaded here.	Surveillance technologies: Perspectives and perceptions of police detainees Murray Lee, David Kohn and Roman Marchant, University of Sydney Emmeline Taylor, City University of London Matthew Willis, Australian Institute of Criminology	Crime and justice in digital society Anastasia Powell, Robin Cameron and Gregory Stratton, RMIT University	Exploring views on offence seriousness, sentencing factors and sentence severity: The jury study findings Kate Warner and Caroline Spiranovic, University of Tasmania Julia Davis, University of South Australia Lynne Roberts, Curtin University	Understanding and preventing harmful sexual behaviour by youth Nadine McKillop, University of the Sunshine Coast Dimity Adams, Griffith University	Gender violence in Australia: Historical perspectives Alana Piper and Lisa Durnian, Griffith University Wendy Kukulies-Smith, Australian National University
		Roundtable	Roundtable	Roundtable	Panel	Panel	Roundtable
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three	Eureka room
4:40 PM	1:00	The research, policy and practice nexus: Future directions for criminology Anika Dell, Victoria Department of Justice and Regulation Garner Clancey, University of Sydney Andrew Goldsmith, Flinders University Tessa Boyd-Caine, Health Justice Australia	Body worn cameras: Investigating impacts and perceptions Susanne Mitchell, Kent State University	Sexual violence in a digital age Anastasia Powell, Georgina Heydon, Marg Liddell, Tully O'Neill, RMIT University	Parole and public opinion Lorana Bartels, University of Canberra Arie Freiberg, Monash University Shannon Buglar, University of Queensland	The intersection of out-of-home care and criminal justice: Historical perspectives, consequences and future directions Kath McFarlane and Emma Colvin, Charles Sturt University Elizabeth Stanley, Victoria University of Wellington Claire Fitzpatrick, University of Lancaster	Transnational crime in Australia and New Zealand across the decades: Its changing nature, threat and mitigation Rob McCusker, De Montfort University

6:30 PM		Conference dinner: Old Parliament House Includes presentation of the Distinguished Criminologist Award and the launch of the The Palgrave Handbook of Australian and New Zealand Criminology, Crime and Justice (Antje Deckert and Rick Sarre, editors)
----------------	--	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Thursday 7 December 2017
Start	Duration
8:00 AM	1:00	Registration and arrival tea and coffee
9:00 AM	0:15	Day two opening Lorana Bartels, University of Canberra
9:15 AM	0:15	Presentation of the Adam Sutton Crime Prevention Award, the Christine M Alder Book Prize and the New Scholar Prize
9:30 AM	1:00	Keynote: A view from the coalface: Indigenous Australians and the criminal justice system Louise Taylor, Legal Aid ACT
10:30 AM	0:30	Morning tea
		Legislation and orders	Policing 2	Culture and religion	Corrections policy and practice	International perspectives	Women and offending 1
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three	Eureka room
	Chair	Anita Mackay	Justin Ellis	Daniel McCarthy	Marietta Martinovic	Roderic Broadhurst	Hayley Boxall
11:00 AM	0:20	Breaches of court-ordered conditions in Victoria: Prevalence and sentencing outcomes Paul McGorry, Sentencing Advisory Council (Victoria)	‘Shock absorbers’: The role of the New South Wales Police Force’s multicultural community liaison officers in policing ‘Middle Eastern crime’ Megan McElhone, University of New South Wales	Alternative and innovative responses to addressing social cohesion: A co-design approach between Victoria Police and the community Aimee Griffin, Victoria Police	Risk classification tools: A snapshot of insights from a literature scoping exercise Harriet Westcott, The University of Sydney	The immoral, the illegal and the criminal: Exploring the relationship between law and corporate harm in Indonesia Fiona Haines, University of Melbourne	The offending, conviction and sentencing of female sex offenders who abuse children when working in institutional contexts Andrea Darling, Durham University
11:20 AM	0:20	Providing a check on prosecutorial decision-making: An analysis of the Victims’ Right to Review reform Mary Iliadis, Monash University	ASEAN law enforcement cooperation in an era of complex global crime Paul Battersby, RMIT University	Interpreter usage and access to procedural justice for linguistically diverse clients of the criminal justice system Joseph MacFarlane, RMIT University	Uncaging the beast: Examining risk as the driver of a separate and distinct strand of penal policy development Jordan Anderson, Victoria University of Wellington	At gunpoint: Firearm use, homicide and organised crime in Mexico Rolando Ochoa, Macquarie University	Women and welfare fraud in Australia Scarlet Wilcock, University of Wollongong
11:40 AM	0:20	The innocence problem: Mitigation, rehabilitation and ‘no body, no parole’ laws Michele Ruyters, RMIT University	Age, inexperience or something else altogether? Examining illicit substance use amongst police officers Timothy Cubitt, New South Wales Police Force	Love thy Niebuhr: Employing theological precepts in the criminological quest Rick Sarre, University of South Australia	What's the point of independent monitoring of closed places? Neil Morgan, Office of the Inspector of Custodial Services	An examination of safety and security measures at state hospitals in South Africa Mokata Johannes Nkwana, University Of South Africa	Women and gender in Australian drug policy: A critical policy analysis Natalie Thomas, University of New England
12:00 PM	0:20	Pocketing the proceeds of crime: Recent legislation in a criminological perspective Hilde Tubex and Sarah Murray, University of Western Australia	The police knowledge fund: Explorations of police/academic collaboration in England and Wales Geoff Berry, University of Derby	Resolving a religious dispute through mediation in India Rajesh Sharma, RMIT University	More New South Wales prisons: Evidence-free public policy John Paget, Charles Sturt University	Hotels in Gauteng Province, South Africa: Is safety and security of assets a priority? Nomsa Cebekhulu, University of South Africa
12:20 PM	1:30	Lunch	Annual General Meeting
		Perspectives on justice	Policing 3	Young people 1	Corrections: Experiences of prison	Crime and society 1	Victims and survivors
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Eureka room	Studio two/three
	Chair	Christopher Dowling	Susanne Mitchell	Kath McFarlane	Rick Sarre	Rob White	Larissa Sandy
1:50 PM	0:20	Conceptualising the social determinants of justice Ruth McCausland, University of New South Wales	Understanding police use of force encounters in context: What encounters look like, circumstances when officers get injured, and the decision factors and processes involved Kelly Hine, Australian National University	Young people in child protection and under youth justice supervision, 2015-16 Kirsten Morgan, Callin Ivanovici Australian Institute of Health and Welfare	Solitary confinement in Australian prisons: From reformation to oppression Peter Norden, RMIT University	A tale of two mafias Adam Masters and Hannah Fox, Australian National University	Victimisation experiences and their association with informal social control actions Rebecca Wickes, Monash University

2:10 PM	0:20	Punishment as acratric action: A view From sociological systems theory Jesse Cunningham, University of Sydney	Show cause analysis: Understanding the drivers of police misconduct as reported by New South Wales police officers Timothy Cubitt, New South Wales Police Force	The importance of out-of-home-care: The views of magistrates in the New South Wales Children’s Court regarding children in care in the New South Wales criminal justice system Emma Colvin, Charles Sturt University	Friendly but not friends: Prison staff and professional boundaries Anna Eriksson, Monash University	‘Long on hocus-pocus and short on transparency’: A criminological guide to the contemporary Australian art market Duncan Chappell, University of Sydney	Challenging assumptions: Victim needs when returning to work after armed robbery Georgina Fuller, Australian Institute of Criminology
2:30 PM	0:20	Risk to resilience: Technology-enabled risk management and deterrence Janine Mahoney, About Change	Police corruption and the rise of the guilty plea in Queensland's Supreme Court Lisa Durnian, Griffith University	Breaking the care-crime connection for girls in out-of-home care Claire Fitzpatrick, Lancaster University	Unpacking the ‘black box’ of prison life: Understanding its importance for Indigenous Australians’ re-entry outcomes Nicole Ryan, Griffith Criminology Institute	Preventing art fraud through emerging technology: Application of a regulatory pluralism model Jade Lindley, University of Western Australia	Traumatic brain injury following assault: The psychosocial impact on caregivers David Belsham, Griffith University
2:50 PM	0:20	Criminalising the political: The liberal state, dissent and the problem of legitimacy Rob Watts, RMIT University		Change the story: Collaborative early intervention for youth justice Karina Chicote, Save the Children	‘Prison doesn’t worry me’: The need to account for cultural difference in the evaluation of prison performance Sjharn Leeson, Griffith University	Neighbourhood Watch 2.0: Community crime prevention meets social media Mark Wood, University of Melbourne	Military jurisdiction in Australia: Accountability and access to remedies for victims Sharyn Jenkins, University of New South Wales
3:10 PM	0:30	Afternoon tea
		Immigration detention and imprisonment	Change and desistance	Young people 2	Family violence and abuse	New technology and techniques	Gendered violence
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three	Eureka room
	Chair	Anna Eriksson	Ross Homel	Mark Halsey	Rebecca Wickes	Asher Flynn	Lisa Harris
3:40 PM	0:20	The harm that hurts us all Claire Loughnan, University of Melbourne	Yoga as a wellbeing intervention in an Australian prison: A pilot program Anthony Hopkins, Australian National University Lorana Bartels, University of Canberra	Language, social inference and antisocial behaviour in young offenders: Analysis of interrelationships Stavroola Anderson, University of Sydney	What do survivors and advocates want for redress? Views on a national scheme for institutional abuse of children Kathleen Daly, Griffith University of Sydney	Framing surveillance: Photo elicitation of young peoples' experience of everyday surveillance Emmeline Taylor, City University of London	‘What about men?’: Discourses of resistance to gendered perspectives on violence against women Naomi Pfitzner, RMIT University
4:00 PM	0:20	From transportation to deportation: The mass deportation of non-Australian citizens with criminal convictions. Peter Norden, RMIT University	‘Nevertheless, he desisted’: The strategies that men use to stop sexually offending Danielle Harris, Griffith University	Exploring new ideas about how to respond to child exploitation material users: Early intervention and automated messages Jeremy Prichard and Caroline Spiranovic, University of Tasmania Tony Krone, University of Canberra	Domestic violence and completed suicide in New South Wales: Preliminary findings Emma Buxton-Namisnyk and Anna Butler, NSW Department of Justice	Explaining the body-worn camera perspective bias Remi Boivin, Université de Montréal	‘Ordinary domestic murder’? Sentencing men convicted of murdering their female intimate partners Marilyn McMahon, Deakin University
4:20 PM	0:20	Immigration detention: Exploring its depth, weight, length and breadth Lorena Rivas, Griffith University	Restorative justice: Innovative approaches, diverse applications Daniel Clements, Jesuit Social Services	Making opportunity knock: Young burglary offenders' descriptions of their motivations and decision-making James McCue, Edith Cowan University	Conceptualising family violence in sentencing: Acknowledging past practice and imagining the future potential of therapeutic jurisprudence Nina Hudson, University of Tasmania	Assessing officer perceptions and impact of body-worn cameras on patrol officer complaints and use of force Susanne Mitchell, Kent State University	Not just 'add women and stir': Primary prevention of gender based violence in sport settings Ruth Liston, RMIT University
4:40 PM	0:20	Changing views and perceptions: The impact of the Inside Out Prison Exchange Program on inside and outside students Marietta Martinovic, RMIT University	Transforming lives and reducing recidivism Gerry Georgatos, Ngalla Maya	Dysfunction, disconnection and drugs: The narratives of young people who come into conflict with the law Natalie Gately, Edith Cowan University	Gaby's story: How economic abuse is perpetuated by our legal and administrative systems Marg Liddell, RMIT University	The Digital Future of Prisons: Communication Technologies and Portals to the Free World Carolyn McKay, University of Sydney	‘The grey area’: Negotiating the meaning of consent in online anti-rape activism Rachel Loney-Howes, La Trobe University

Friday 8 December 2017
Start	Duration
8:00 AM	0:45	Registration and arrival tea and coffee
8:45 AM	0:15	Presentation of the Allen Austin Bartholomew Award and the Student Paper Prize
9:00 AM	1:00	Keynote: Moving beyond ritualism: Acknowledging state-institutional violence Elizabeth Stanley, Victoria University of Wellington
10:00 AM	0:25	Morning tea
		Child sexual abuse	Fraud	Young people 3	Women and offending 2	Family and domestic violence 1
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three
	Chair	Trish McCluskey	Cassandra Cross	Jeremy Prichard	Ruth McCausland	Paula Piccinini
10:25 AM	0:20	Can cross-agency teams improve the criminal justice response to allegations of child sexual abuse? The evaluation of the Multiagency Investigation and Support Team (Western Australia) James Herbert, University of South Australia	Age and consumer fraud: Are some age groups more vulnerable to fraud victimisation? Penny Jorna, Australian Institute of Criminology	Compare and contrast: Effective approaches to youth justice in Europe and the United States Daniel Clements, Jesuit Social Services	The criminal careers of female homicide offenders Li Eriksson, Griffith University	Imagining a future free of family violence: Creating consistency in correctly identifying the primary aggressor Annette Gillespie, safe steps Family Violence Response Centre
10:45 AM	0:20	‘No action required’: A historical pattern of inaction towards child sexual abuse by the Queensland Police Service Paul Bleakley, University of New England	Exposing fish fraud as the ultimate illicit network Jade Lindley, The University of Western Australia	Rumble’s Quest as a tool for crime prevention: The development and properties of a measure of child social-emotional wellbeing Ross Homel, Jacqueline Homel, Griffith University	Versatile offending and the criminal careers of female offenders in Victoria, 1860–1920 Alana Piper, Griffith University	Responding to recidivist offending in family violence: Applying a ‘serious crimes’ and integrated support approach Lisa Harris, RMIT University
11:05 AM	0:20	Police officers’ perceptions of a child sex offender register: Identifying and responding to risk Kindalin Masters, Griffith University		Did the Pathways to Prevention Project reduce youth offending? Sixteen-year outcomes of a multi-systemic developmental prevention project Jacqueline Homel, Griffith University	Rural and urban female offending in Victoria, 1860–1920 Victoria Nagy (via video), Griffith University	Should non-physical family violence be prosecuted as stalking in Australia and New Zealand? Marilyn McMahon and Paul McGorry, Deakin University
11:25 AM	0:05	CHANGEOVER
		Perspectives on violence	Policing 4: Culture and practice	Young people 4	Carriages of justice	Sentencing and outcomes
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three
	Chair	Anastasia Powell	Timothy Cubitt	Emma Colvin	Christine Bond	Lorana Bartels
11:30 AM	0:20	Cascades of violence and macrocriminology John Braithwaite, Australian National University	‘The Meme Team’: Exploring the use of humour in police social media Alyce McGovern, University of New South Wales	The act of monitoring in forensic interviews: Does it impact on child accuracy? Tess Patterson, University of Otago	Royal commissions and wrongful convictions in Australia Jacqueline Fuller, Griffith University	An eco-centric approach to the sentencing of environmental offences Rob White, University of Tasmania
11:50 AM	0:20	Violence and Elias's historical sociology: The case of Cambodia Roderic Broadhurst, Australian National University	Sexism, racism, homophobia and intolerance towards 'difference' within British police Irene Zempi, Nottingham Trent University	Young perpetrators and child victims: The scope of human rights standards Nessa Lynch, Victoria University of Wellington	Why haven't innocence projects in Australia been successful? Gregory Stratton and Michele Ruyters, RMIT University	The relevance of political motivations to sentencing Jamie Walvisch, Monash University
12:10 PM	0:20	Responding to young peoples' violence: Amplifying or addressing the problem? Diana Johns, University of Melbourne, Marg Liddell, RMIT University	Positive thinking, coping skills, and well-being: An empirical study of future police recruits Doris Chu, National Chung Cheng University	Reducing the gap between the conceptualisation and measurement of reintegration of children affected by armed conflict Luke Bearup and Ibolya Losoncz, Australian National University	The right to prepare a criminal defence while imprisoned Anita Mackay, La Trobe University	Sentencing young offenders in Western Australia: What mitigates punitive views of offending held by the general public? Suzanne Ellis, Edith Cowan University

12:30 PM	0:20	Can police violence be addressed through democratic reform? Darren Palmer, Deakin University	The impact of Local Area Command based policing on crime rates: Assessing the New South Wales Police Force structure as a mode of crime prevention Timothy Cubitt, Western Sydney University	Improving the management of young people with fetal alcohol spectrum disorder in detention Hayley Passmore, Telethon Kids Institute	The emergence of neuroscience as a commonly admitted type of evidence in Australian criminal courts: How it happened and why we should care Armin Alimardani, Faculty of Law, University of New South Wales	Reducing Indigenous imprisonment: The role of intimidation Don Weatherburn, NSW Bureau of Crime Statistics and Research
12:50 PM	1:00	Lunch
		Acknowledging the past, imagining the future	Beyond the surface: Intelligence and forensics	Young people 5	Crime and society 2	Family and domestic violence 2
	Room	Ballroom one	Ballroom two	Ballroom three	Studio one	Studio two/three
	Chair	Russell Smith	Geoff Berry not registered	Claire Fitzpatrick	Jade Lindley	Annette Gillespie
1:50 PM	0:20	Most influential publications in Australian and New Zealand criminology (1967-2017) Tara Renae McGee and Li Eriksson, Griffith University	Utilising spatial video geo-narratives in Skid Row, Los Angeles, California to map the illicit drug landscape Susanne Mitchell, Kent State University	The Victorian Therapeutic Treatment Board, 10 years on: Learnings from a legal-therapeutic response to sexually harmful behaviour by children and young people Trish McCluskey, Department of Health and Human Services, Victoria	The role of co-offending networks in criminal careers Alana Piper, Griffith University	Innovative court responses to family violence: A 12-month evaluation of the Southport Domestic and Family Violence Specialist Court trial Christine Bond, Griffith University
2:10 PM	0:20	Gun control legislation: Australia's 20-year leading role on the world stage Philip Alpers, University of Sydney	Where has all the strategic criminal intelligence gone? Phil Kowalick, Queensland University of Technology	Children in conflict with law versus law in conflict with children: Deciphering the National Crime Records Bureau: Crime data and policy discourse in India Muzaffar Mir, Jamia Millia Islamia	Trafficking in quantifacts: Unpacking the grand narrative of trafficking-as-organised-crime in criminological research Larissa Sandy, RMIT University	Time matters: The importance of targeted, timely and graduated responses to domestic violence Hayley Boxall, Australian Institute of Criminology
2:30 PM	0:20	A history of community strengthening in Australia: Decentralisation, policy, partnerships and practice Yolande Robinson, Griffith University	Networked offending: Street crime meets the Internet's space of flows Mark Wood and William Arpke-Wales, University of Melbourne		Statistical analysis of the relationship between crime, electronic gaming machine accessibility and demographics: New South Wales, Australia Roman Marchant, University of Sydney	What do we know about the outcomes of police responses to domestic violence? A systematic review Christopher Dowling, Australian Institute of Criminology
2:50 PM	0:20	Imagining future criminal law in Australia Marcus Smith, Charles Sturt University	Acknowledging the past through the recuperation of human remains Natalia Maystorovich Chulio, University of Sydney			Universal Services Team at Eastern Domestic Violence Service Paula Piccinini, Eastern Domestic Violence Service
3:10 PM	0:30	Ice cream social Sponsored by American Society of Criminology				