Privacy Policy

Rotary International District 9630 Conference Committee is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of your personal information. Our privacy policy adheres to the National Privacy Principles as required under the Privacy Act 1988.

The personal information that you submit to us is collected in order to provide information services to you which in turn facilitates the co-ordination of the Conference activities.

We may:

- share the information with other Rotary Clubs in the District to the extent required in the organisation of the Conference;
- disclose the information to outside parties in the course of undertaking Rotary activities and Programs associated with the Conference; and
- use the information with your consent or as otherwise required by law.

We will not disclose, sell or trade your personal information to any organisation other than as set out above.

You may access your information at any time.

If you do require access to your personal information, or have any concerns regarding its use please contact the Conference Registrar John Simpson (coolidge1@bigpond.com) (0459 333 588).

If any of the information we hold is incorrect, inaccurate or out-of-date, please contact us immediately and we will amend the information so held.

All information gathered will be destroyed at the completion of the Conference.

No credit card details are retained by the system or the Conference Committee after the successful completion of your payment transaction.
